with the Schemes/Programmes of Ministry of Health, Education and Rural Development (Drinking water Supply).

(viii) To strengthen the existing monitoring and supervision mechanism for ICDS Scheme, the Government of India has approved setting up of a Central Monitoring Unit (CMU) at National Institute of Public Cooperation and Child Development (NIPCCD), which would monitor the Scheme through independent professional organisation/institution in each State/ UT. This would be in addition to the monitoring mechanism in place at present.

(ix) A National level Monitoring Committee has been set up under the Chairpersonship of MOS(WCD) to oversee the entire functioning of ICDS Scheme and to ensure that the services are delivered to the target groups in an effective manner and the objectives of the scheme are fulfilled within the overall framework of the ICDS Scheme.

Safety and security of children

122. SHRI JANARDHANA POOJARY: Will the Minister of WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether any law/regulation exists for ensuring safety and security of children;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether instances have surfaced recently where thousands of children from various parts of the country, particularly hailing from socially and economically weaker sections of the society, have gone missing;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) the measures proposed to be taken to ensure safety and security of children?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI RENUKA CHOWDHURY) (a) and (b) Several provisions are available under different legislations of the country for the safety and security of children. A list of such legislations is given in Statement-I (See below).

(c) and (d) National Crime Records Bureau receives case information from States/UTs on missing children. The details of the cases reported during the year 2000 to 2006 on the basis of this information available are enclosed at Statement-II (See below). The Bureau does not collect and maintain information on social and economic background of the missing children.

(e) In addition to the implementation of the provisions available under the Constitution, Legislations, Policies and Plans of Action the Ministry of women and Child Development is in the process of setting up of a National Commission for Protection of Child Rights and formulation of an Integrated Child Protection Scheme and Offences Against Children (Prevention) Bill to ensure protection, safety and security of children.
